Good morning Yael,

It was an honor to attend the event. I was very impressed with how seamless everything went. I know how much work goes into putting an event like that together. It was well done by the ADL. I look forward to growing our relationship. I will email Mr. Barkey.

Thank you again for having us. It was overwhelming when we got up on stage.
Happy Holidays,
Angel

I hope you had a wonderful time last night and that the drive back to Jacksonville is uneventful. It was nice to meet you and [REDACTED] and spend time during the dinner. We are thankful for your unit's dedication and it was a pleasure to honor you.

I take this opportunity to introduce you via email my colleague David Barkey. He could not be there last night but he is based out of our Florida office and is our in-house expert and trainer on hate crimes. Since you are the designated person to review all hate crimes for Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and sit on a task force with the FBI I thought it would be important for you two to connect. David goes all over the southeast region training law enforcement on hate crimes and he would welcome the opportunity to come to Jacksonville and do the same for your department.

Thank you again for coming to receive the LE Award last night. It was special for all of us.
Happy Holidays,
Yael
